

Cove Lake State Park Knap-In

And Primitive Skills Festival

October 20th, 21st, and 22nd, 2017

Cove Lake State Park, Caryville, Tennessee

The 8th Annual Cove Lake State Park Knap-In and Primitive Skills Festival will be held from 9:00 a.m. until sunset on the 20th and 21st, and vendors usually pack up around noon on Sunday the 22nd. Flint Knapping is the shaping of fracture stones such as flint, chert, and obsidian into arrowheads, knives, etc. Vendor's fee is $15.00 for the weekend. For further information regarding camping fees and Park rules, visit www.tanasibows.com or call Cove Lake State Park at 423-566-9701. Additional lodging is available nearby. Rickard Ridge, an excellent family restaurant, is located on the park premises. This event is free and open to the public.

Joe Darnell, event organizer

contact@tanasisbows.com

www.tanasibows.com

(865) 680-9033

Cove Lake State Park

www.state.tn.us/environment/parks/CoveLake/

Rickard Ridge BBQ

www.rickardridgebbq.com

Demonstrations will include:

- Flint knapping
- Bow building
- Pottery
- Cordage
- Edible plant walk
- Blowguns, darts, and arrows
- Primitive fire making
- Atlatl throwing